

To the world you may be one person, but to one person you may be the world

GUNBOWER MEMORIAL HALL 20TH DECEMBER 2008
Photography by Crimson Tide Photography

Our ceremony was simply us and we wanted to include all of our immediate family in the ceremony, whether it was through a reading, signing the register or being in our bridal party. We wanted the day to be about how important our family and friends are to us and how much we love them. After the ceremony we took a lovely drive to photo spots around Gunbower and our family farm – chauffeured in beautiful Riley cars by their owners Peter and Elizabeth Lowe.

NO-ONE CAN REMEMBER THE LAST TIME THERE WAS A WEDDING AT THE HALL, OR THE LAST TIME THERE WAS SUCH A LARGE EVENT THERE. IT WAS FANTASTIC TO USE THE HALL. GROUPS OF US WENT DOWN THERE MOST DAYS AND NIGHTS THE WEEK BEFORE THE WEDDING TO SET-UP WHILE SIPPING CHAMPAGNE AND HAVING A DANCE. IT MADE IT THAT BIT MORE SPECIAL THAT FAMILY AND FRIENDS COULD BE INVOLVED AND CELEBRATE THE DESIGN AND CREATION OF OUR BEAUTIFUL WEDDING. THERE WERE SO MANY PEOPLE THAT MADE IT THE DAY THAT IT WAS.

I DID ALL OUR BOUQUETS AND INCLUDED BLACKBERRIES, UNUSUAL ROSES, CRAB APPLES, PEONIES, FREESIAS, JAPANESE MAPLE LEAVES AND GLORIOSA LILIES. I WANTED SOMETHING BRIGHT FOR THE GIRLS AND SOMETHING A LITTLE LESS SO FOR ME. I HAD TALL VASES WITH BLUE HYDRANGEA AND SPECTACULAR REDS, LEMON SPIDER ORCHIDS ON THE TABLES AND HUGE ARRANGEMENTS OF BUD AND NUT LADEN EUCALYPTUS PLEUROCARPA.
